Culture Box Exchange

e-Pals Global Community

The screenshot shows an email interface. At the top right, it says "第 151 封, 共 4,". The subject line is "New connection pending on the ePals Global Community!". The sender is "ePals Team support@epals.com" with a link to "透過 e.cricketmedia.com" and a date of "10月24日". The recipient is "寄給我". There is a language selection bar with "英文" and "中文(繁體)" options, and a "翻譯郵件" button. The ePals logo is visible. The main text of the email reads: "Shuping Y, Ben has invited you to connect on the ePals Global Community! View their profile and accept the request to build your educator network on the ePals Global Community. I'd like to add you to my network on the ePals Global Community. Hello, My name is Boram Koo, a teacher at UNESCO Global Peace Village in Korea. We have been working on a culture exchange project, which I was wondering if you are interested in doing with us. It's basically exchanging a box full of things that represent culture. Every week, we have between 60-100 Korean students aged 11-13 who visit us for five days. Here they learn about peace, the environment, world culture and heritage. One of the main activities of the week is making a 'Culture Box'. In this Culture Box, we aim to teach our partner school about Korean culture by including different objects that symbolize what it means to be 'Korean'. Some of the things that we send are student-made posters, puzzles, fans, traditional games such as 'Jaegi' and 'Yut Nori', traditional crafts, and anything else that we can think of. We also like learning about our partner school's culture by playing games, and will send pictures (and maybe videos) of our students playing them. We are entirely open for other ways to exchange cultures, and have been involved in Skype conversations, student-specific profiles and many other things in the past. I should note that we are unable to sustain email conversations though, as our students only see us for one week. If you would like to receive a Korean 'Culture Box', and send a box containing your country's culture in return, then please message me! For quicker response, please contact me via personal email, since Epals email hasn't been very reliable on my end. It is kbrm99@gmail.com. Thank you. Hope you have a great day Best wishes, Boram". At the bottom, there are links for "Accept" and "View Profile".

Hi, Iris.
Thanks for the email. I would love to send you our box.
I can schedule you with (about 90) 6 graders coming next week. and you can get our box, no later than middle of December.
and I'm hoping to receive Taiwanese box by end of Jan.
Will it be okay with your schedule too?
If so, please send me your school name and address, so I can start up for next week :)

Thanks again.

Best wishes,
Boram

Hello, Boram!
Thank you so much for your quick response. The schedule is okay with me. I think I will be able to send you our box a little earlier. Maybe you can receive it by the end of December. Is that okay with you? When I told my students about our culture box exchange project, they were all very excited and happy. We are looking forward to receiving your box. My school name is New Taipei Municipal Zhuwei High School. The address is No. 35, Zhulin Rd., Danshui District, New Taipei City 25159, Taiwan. And would you please send me your school name and address? We'll send our box to you as soon as we finish making it. Thank you so much and have a nice day!

Best wishes,
